

Community Engagement Artist

We are looking for somebody who has a passion for dance, the arts and connecting with communities. Someone who is comfortable leading a workshop in a school, youth or community centre, can engage with communities and network with stakeholders and partner organisations. Is this you?

DU Dance (NI) is seeking a Community Engagement Artist to join our small, lively and productive team.

- 2-year freelance starting January 2022.
- 2 days per week (or equivalent). Hours are flexible but agreed in advance.

Previous experience in community dance is essential and good interpersonal and communication skills are also required.

The Community Engagement Artist will be responsible for:

- developing links and increasing participant numbers from Northern Ireland's most challenged communities.
- delivering dance taster workshops and talks in schools, youth and community centres.
- strategically increasing the profile of the company with new audiences and building relations with stakeholders.

They will work closely alongside the Artistic Director to deliver an annual programme in line with the company's strategic plan.
